Eucharist

Eucharist comes in many forms.
Yesterday at dawn I stepped onto the round, white stones of Lake Michigan's vast shore; I felt the deepest communion with all that exist, especially with the One who woos my heart.
I thought of my friend, Janet, holding out her open hands at Mass to receive the Gift she holds dear.
Today, as the retreat house bell calls the women to come receive, I stand before the full-bodied, incandescent maple tree, sunshine illuminating its golden leaves like the host held high in the blue sky.
I stand in creation's communion line, bow my head, open my heart, and receive Eucharist once again. (Joyce Rupp)
