11th February 2018 - 6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

On Meditating, Sort of

Meditation, so I've heard, is best accomplished if you entertain a certain strict posture. Frankly, I prefer just to lounge under a tree. So why should I think I could ever be successful?

Some days I fall asleep, or land in that even better place—half-asleep—where the world, Spring, Summer, Autumn, Winter—flies through my mind in its hardy ascent and its uncompromising descent.

So I just lie like that, while distance and time reveal their true attitudes: they never heard of me, and never will, or ever need to.

Of course I wake up finally thinking, how wonderful to be who I am, made out of earth and water, my own thoughts, my own fingerprints - all that glorious, temporary stuff. (Mary Oliver)
